C. READING:

I. Read the text then answer the questions:

Everyone wants to reduce pollution, but the pollution problem is as complicated as it is serious. It is complicated because much pollution is caused by things that benefit people. For example, exhaust from automobiles causes large percentage of air pollution. But the automobiles provide transportation to millions of people. Factories discharge much of the material that pollutes air and water, but factories give employment to a large number of people.

Thus, to the end or greatly require pollution immediately, people would have to stop using many things that benefit them. Most people do not want to do that, of course. But pollution can be gradually reduced in several ways. Scientists and engineers can work to find ways to lessen the amount of pollution that such things as automobiles and factories cause. Governments can pass and enforce laws that reduce businesses and individuals to stop, or cut down on certain polluting activities.

1. Do things that benefit people bring about pollution?

2. Is it complicated to reduce pollution? Why or why not?

.....

3. Who can find ways to lessen the amount of pollution?

.....

4. What can the Government do to reduce pollution?

.....

II. Complete the passage with word given

If – disappearance – up – also – while – completely – from

These days it is impossible to open newspaper (0) without reading about the damage we are doing to the environment. The earth is being threatened and the future looks bad. What can each of us do?

We can not clean (1).....our polluted rivers and seas overnight. Nor can we stop the (2).....of plants and animals. But we can stop adding to the problem (3)scientists look for answers.

It may not be easy to change your lifestyle (4).....but some steps are easy to take: cut down the amount of driving you do, or use as little plastic as possible. It is also easy to save energy which (5).....reduces household bills. We must all make a personal decision to work for the future of our planet (6).....we want to ensure a better world from our grandchildren.
